

Only the "old-time" Oculist still believes that the only way to secure the full measure of usefulness from glasses is to mount them in spectacles.

This belief is a fallacy. We have fitted the patented or Harris Finger-piece mounting in thousands of cases, to the complete satisfaction of the wearers.

Harris Suction Clip

The Harris Suction Clip holds eyeglasses firmly in position, and will make the wearing of eyeglasses a pleasure and a comfort.

Attached to your glasses—35 cts.—75 cts.—$1.00—$1.50 or more—depending upon the grade selected.

Sold only at our stores.

WOMAN'S YELLS FOIL "KIDNAPPERS," SHOTS HALT JITNEY FLIGHT

Stemper, Who Sought Children, Wife Believes, Vanishes—Friend Is Arrested.

Screams from a disheveled woman on a fire-escape called the police to No. 149 Madison Street early this morning. Simultaneously a man dashed from the building, jumped into a jitney bus across the street and started away.

Firing revolvers, the police chased the jitney. After a two blocks' chase the chauffeur surrendered. He gave his name as Frank Belint of No. 418 Lewis Street, Newark. The passenger said he was Herbert L. Hudson, a salesman, of No. 548 Tenth Avenue, Manhattan.

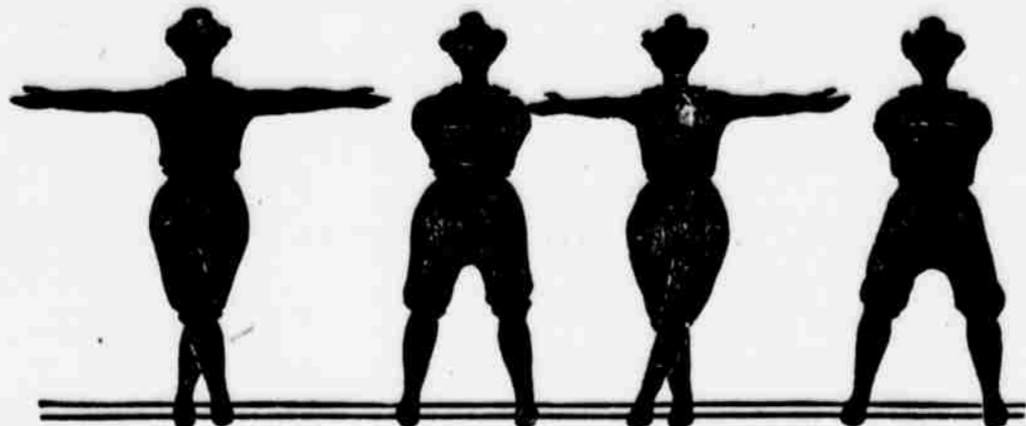

The woman said she was Mrs. Annie Stemper, and that she and her husband, David, a tailor, separated a year ago. He had made several attempts to get their four children since then, and a noise at the door this morning made her believe he was after them again. She ran to lock the door, she said, just as the glass was broken by a blow from outside, and she saw her husband and Hudson. Then she screamed.

Hudson denied any knowledge of a kidnapping plot, and said he had met Stemper by accident. Belint said Stemper had hired his vehicle in Fairview, N. J., where Stemper lives, to "go calling in Manhattan." Stemper disappeared. Hudson was held and, being released, went back to New Jersey in his jitney bus.

Obesity Reducing Exercises for Women Presented in a Series of Handy Charts

COPYRIGHT, 1916, BY THE PRESS PUBLISHING CO. (THE NEW YORK EVENING WORLD.)

CHART NO. 30 Arranged by PAULINE FURLONG. OBESITY REDUCTION

REDUCES FAT ON ARMS AND SHOULDERS, STRENGTHENS HIP, THIGH AND LEG MUSCLES.

FIRST—Stand with feet crossed, right leg over left one, arms extended and at right angles with body.
SECOND—Jump from this position until feet are about twenty-four inches apart and bring arms to a folding position across breast with a quick movement.

THIRD—Jump back to first position, bringing the left leg in front of the right one this time and fold arms again.
Relax after every three jumps and continue to jump about twelve times if it does not tire you.

Send two-cent stamp to Miss Furlong, Evening World, No. 63 Park Row, New York City, for each and every back number of charts desired, but order paper of your newspaper in advance to insure obtaining complete set. Letters not over 250 words in length. Miss Furlong will answer on days alternating between publication of charts, besides writing articles bearing on obesity reduction.

CHART NO. 31 WILL BE PRINTED IN THE EVENING WORLD MONDAY.

Spain Will Preserve Neutrality

The neutrality of Spain will be preserved throughout the war, even if the nation finds it necessary to fight to keep neutral, according to Col. Don Antonio Alfaro, a Spanish Chamberlain to the King of Spain, who arrived here today on the Spanish liner Montevideo. He said the feeling of the people was that Spain had been left to fight its own battles in the past and would let other nations fight for themselves.

GIRL WHO SUES PASTOR SAYS HE TOLD HER OF CELEBRITY VOW

Then Sent Her a Clipping Announcing His Engagement to Another Girl.

BOSTON, May 12.—Under a hard cross-examination by the attorney for the defense today, Miss Laura Louise Johnson of Minneapolis, who asks a $20,000 verdict against Rev. Charles Chase Wilson of Haxbydale, because they were not wed, admitted that she had never had an engagement ring from Wilson.

More letters between the plaintiff and defendant were produced in today's hearing.

These were fervent protestations of love on the Miss Johnson's part. Wilson's were couched in more formal terms and addressed to "Dear Sister Johnson."

The pastor's notes, brief and often businesslike, were signed "Yours faithfully, C. Wilson."

The plaintiff told how Wilson had said that he intended to take a vow of celibacy, and answer a "higher call." At the same time, the plaintiff's counsel alleges he sent her a clipping announcing his engagement to a New York girl.

"CORPSE" COMES TO LIFE; FUNERAL IS OFF

Friends Have Plans All Made to Bury John Cominsky When He Turns Up Alive.

Friends and acquaintances of John Cominsky, a Hastings-on-Hudson character, have been busily engaged during the last few days in arranging his funeral and endeavoring to locate his relatives. They had identified the body of a man found in front of No. 20 Warburton Avenue as John and believed he had tripped on the sidewalk and broken his neck.

John heard nothing of the funeral arrangements until today, when he awoke a frightened friend several blocks to assure him he was alive. He then went to the morgue, where he admitted the dead man was as much like him as a twin brother could be. He thanked his friends for showing him how they would treat him if he were dead. His double still remains unidentified.

The funeral of the real John is off.

LAY UP SIX BATTLESHIPS.

Ordered to Navy Yards for Repairs.—To Form New Division.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Six Atlantic Fleet battleships were ordered placed in reserve today—the New Jersey, Rhode Island, Virginia, Nebraska, Louisiana and Connecticut.

The New Jersey, Rhode Island, Virginia and Nebraska were ordered by the Navy Department to go to the Virginia Navy Yard for the rebuilding to the Norfolk Yard and the Connecticut to the Philadelphia Yard. All will undergo repairs, after which they will form a new division with the Pennsylvania, Arizona and Nevada.

A Rare Offering of 200 Women's Silk Dresses

Newly in today. Saturday, $32.50 each.

The same sort of dresses we have been selling since May came, at $45 to $67.50.

They are the unavoidable surplus of a large manufacturer who is now busy on summer cottons; a manufacturer noted for detail of finish and for embroideries.

There are lovely taffetas of substantial texture, plain, stripes, over-plaids, panels, checks, combined with crepe Georgette.

The completeness of the work on each dress is remarkable; picot edges, quaint fluting on organdie collar, fine hemstitching, facings—such as this one of rose silk under the hem of a fancy over-plaid skirt; velvet trimmings; metal laces; fancy chiffons; moire ribbons.

To give the color effect desired, one dress has an under-skirt of white chambray with panel of orange; over that a blue chiffon skirt; then an over-tune of navy taffeta, banded, and beautifully flowing.

They are individual dresses; only one or two of a kind. A rare offering. Second floor, Old Building.

Five Unusual Offers By Sale of White (Original)

This third Saturday of the White Sale finds almost as complete variety as on opening day. Everything is fresh, different, inviting.

At Last—the May Disposal In the Millinery Salons

Hundreds and hundreds of lovely trimmed hats will be reprieved on Saturday. It is impossible to give an idea of the variety, but this we can say.

The hats are so absolutely charming and so different that we cannot imagine a woman's coming and not finding a hat that will be very flattering.

Every shape of course, large and small. Colors to match or contrast with any costume. Flowers, wings, ribbons and novelty trimmings and all the fashionable straws.

$12 to $15 hats, now $9. $14 hats, now $8. $9.50 and $10 hats, now $6. $7 and $8 hats, now $5.

Moderate-Priced Millinery Salons First floor, Old Building.
